Section 3 : Summary of Research aims

Please refer to the Millennium Fund constitution and explain how your research meets the terms expressed in the constitution. Please limit this to 350 words maximum. This section will be used to summarise the application to the Grant Assessment Committee and to consider whether the application moves to the next stage.

Section 4 Proposed Research Activities in detail

This section allows you to provide additional detail. However, it is essential that further information here is clear, concise and relevant to the application. Long or excessive submissions, or large amounts of copy-pasted material, may cause your application to be rejected.

Context: Describe the context of the proposed activities, clearly identifying the existing piece or body of research the proposed activities are based on and how the proposal will strengthen the impact of that research.

Proposed activities: Please provide a clear and concise description of the activities to be undertaken.

Timetable: Describe the timetable for the project, including appropriate milestones and dates for when outcomes/outputs of the project will be completed.

The form in which the research will be submitted: Examples are: a substantive work that meets scholarly standards for publishing and/or dissemination, an academic paper or journal article, defined lecture series or educational module (i.e., more than a one-off talk), a substantive new recording, translation or exploration of primary source material

Collaboration: Where appropriate, detail the partner organisation(s) that the applicant is working with, their role in the project and how they will work together to develop and deliver the outcomes.

Outcomes and impact: Describe how this project meets the scheme aims and eligibility criteria especially in terms of delivering impact by developing creative and innovative engagements with new audiences and user communities.
