

Interesting finds: February

Aeolidia filomenae

The sighting of the Aeolidia filomenae is the first Channel Island record, although members are sure they have seen them before, highlighting the importance of recording your findings!

Prideaux's hermit crab

Lissoclinum perforatum

Interesting finds: February

The recording of the Attagema gibba is the first record for Jersey 93rd record for section members.

This is a very rare species.

Attagema gibba

Symsagittifera roscoffensis
Mint sauce worms

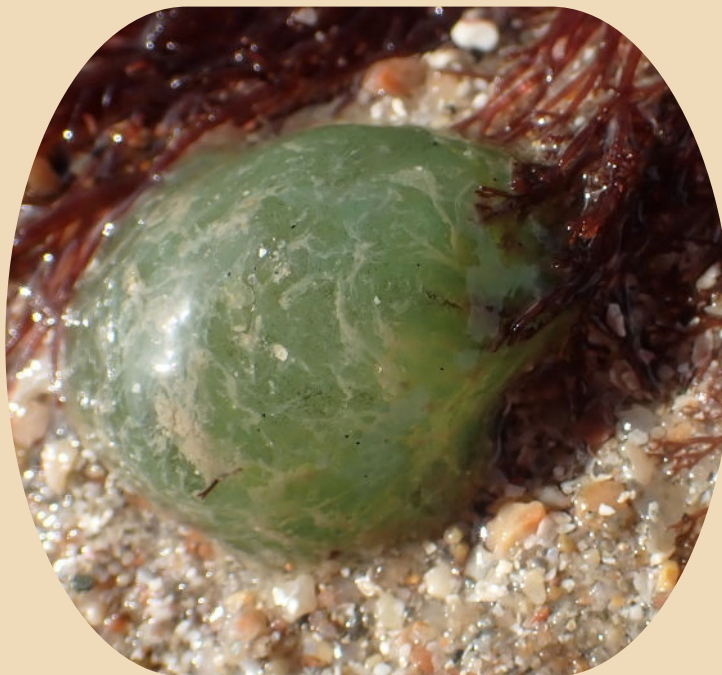

Interesting finds: February

Ampithoidae

Geitodoris planata

Green leaf worm
(Eulalia clavigera)
egg case

Interesting finds: February

Dahlia anemone

Norway cockle

Bryers nut crab

Members during the La Rocque discovery session

Marine Biology

Coming up

Section meetings

Marine Biology
Section meeting

Date: 7th March

Time: 7.30pm

Location: Société Jersiaise
7 Pier Road

Marine Biology
Section meeting

Date: 4th April

Time: 7.30pm

Location: Société Jersiaise
7 Pier Road

Sunday 10th March.

Meet at Anne Port slip 11.30am

Low tide 0.5m

Sunday 7th April.

Meet at L'Etacq slip 11.30am

Low tide 1.1m

Come join us for a discovery session to see what organisms can be found.

Please wear closed toe shoes and dress appropriately for the weather.

Images courtesy of Nicolas Jouault.

<https://www.societe.je/our-sections/marine-biology/>
Facebook: Societe Jersiaise marine Biology Section